CHARLOTTE FRASER

Legal Governor

Governor since 2026

Charlotte read Modern Languages at Brasenose College, Oxford. She then trained as a lawyer, becoming a partner at Farrer and Co in 2017, where she runs the Contentious Trusts and Estates team. Her specialism is high-value, complex trust and estate disputes – often with significant cross-border elements – advising executors, trustees, beneficiaries and settlors. Her work regularly involves allegations of fraud and breach of trust, contested wills and Lasting Powers of Attorney, as well as jurisdictional disputes.

Charlotte is also a non-executive director at Thorngrove School and lives locally with her family.
